Done In The Dark 2

Synopsis

After the most difficult time in her life, Lucia is finally happy and excited to plan her wedding to Jacob. She feels that with her sister safely locked away, nothing could stop her blessings from coming forth. But will an unknown steal her joy yet again? Jacob is dealing with the death of an old friend and all of the secrets that he left behind. What he uncovers though may jeopardize his relationship with the love of his life and cause the church his mother now leads to fall to scandal. Will the information he has help or hurt everyone in his life? Gwendolyn is set on revenge. She feels slighted by her biological family and wants what's hers. She's married to Benny, but has no love for him or their child. They are a means to an end in her eyes. Will her quest for revenge have the results that she desires? Or will the Holy Spirit heal her wounded heart and unite her with her family? These questions will be answered and more as the drama continues to unfold for the March family and their friends.

I chose this rating because of the excitement and the happiness of the couple's new life. I'm glad that the half sister, Gwen got her life together and got saved. I'm for her and husband. That's was a great story ending for them. I still don't know about this girl marrying her husband's brother and raising his children's as his. I'm glad the elderly people were saved and giving sound advice to the young. I recommend this book to anyone that's living a Christian life. AND to anyone who need to change his or her life.

Much, much better. The first one, Done in the dark 1 wasn't as well written as this one and I almost stopped reading it. However, I man glad that I continued and even on to the next because I really enjoyed this read. I hope that the constructive criticism is received because I mean no harm but I am actually waiting intently for the final series.

Loved this follow up to Part 1. I was not disappointed with this one at all. I love the way the spiritual walk was laid out and all the surprise twists and turns. Keep it up Tabeitha!!!

I held my breath throughout the wedding and honeymoon. I envisioned yet another tragedy striking this awesome family. I was relieved to know Hollis finally found peace and forgiveness.

I absolutely loved this book and already have the next book down loaded and ready to read!Her stories are interesting with the right amount of drama and holy spirit...
